BOARD OF EDUCATION POLICY

INSTRUCTION

Physical Education Uniforms

Clothing specifically designed for freedom of body movement contributes to a safer exercise environment during physical education activities. Required attire is knee length solid black shorts and a plain gray sleeved t-shirt, appropriate foot apparel (sneakers), and solid black sweat pants and a plain gray sweat shirt for colder weather. Students must have this attire available prior to beginning of their physical education course.

All students are required to wear the appropriate and required dress for physical education.
